However, prior to filing his opposition, plaintiff filed an objection to the defendants' motion for summary judgment. In that objection, plaintiff alleged that he never received the court's January 27, 2011 order of service. In light of plaintiff's assertion, and a general chrono submitted by plaintiff from a correctional officer (Opp. at 6) stating that no mail from the Northern District Court was received for plaintiff from January 25, 2011 through April 27, 2011, the court will send plaintiff another copy of the January 27, 2011 order of service.

Order Granting Extension of Time to File Supplemental Opposition

1 order to file a supplemental opposition. If defendants wish to file a supplemental reply, they
2 shall do so within fifteen days thereafter. At that time, the motion for summary judgment will be
3 deemed submitted and ready for consideration.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
